Endangered persons advisory issued for missing Manhattan girl

POTTAWATOMIE COUNTY – The Pottawatomie County Sheriff's Office requested the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) issue an endangered persons advisory for a missing Manhattan girl.

The whereabouts of 12-year-old Anabelle C. Deacon are unknown, and the public's assistance is requested to help locate her.

Anabelle lives in Manhattan, Kansas, and in rural Pottawatomie County. She was last seen walking east on Heather Lane in Manhattan, Wednesday morning around 6:50 a.m. She was last known wearing a St. Francis Xavier's catholic school uniform which is tan khaki pants, and a blue polo shirt. She may also be wearing a black hoodie.

Anabelle is described as a white female, approximately 5 foot 5 inches tall, and weighing around 110 pounds. She has brown curly hair, brown eyes, and wears glasses.

If you see Anabelle, call 911 immediately. If you have any other information about this case, please call the Pottawatomie County Sheriff's Office at (785) 457-3353.
